Developers say they have listened to concerns over 'iconic' new flats

DEVELOPERS behind plans for a prolific and "iconic" seafront development in Seaton say they have listened to local concerns by reducing its height.

Seaton Beach Developments Ltd was set up specifically to buy an empty house on East Walk called Seaton Beach, formerly Trebere.

The company consists of Axminster residents Mike Dowling and Anne Baker plus Mike and Audrey Webb, who live outside of Devon.

Their original plan was to demolish the existing building and replace it with a "stylish" 10-flat development, including a penthouse on top.

But East Devon District Council's planning department received complaints that the proposed building was too tall and out of character with the area.

The developers responded by going back to the drawing board and coming up with a plan for eight flats over four floors and a penthouse on top.

Seaton Beach Developments Ltd Operations Director Mike Dowling said: "We very much want to play our part in Seaton's revival by placing a landmark, potentially award-winning, building at the heart of its seafront which is currently in need of a significant uplift."

"Seaton Beach (if we gain planning approval) will be a stunning, beautifully designed iconic building of the highest quality and sustainability which will make a real statement that Seaton is back in business and is not afraid to look to the future rather than the past for its inspiration."

During the planning process, the company has sought advice from The Design Review Panel in Devon.

Mr Webb said: "The indication from

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

The Design Review Panel is that it could be an award-winning building."

The panel provides impartial advice to applicants and local authorities – and, under the National Planning Policy Framework, its feedback is a material consideration for local authorities and the planning inspectorate when determining planning applications.

Mr Dowling added: "It is heart-warming to see Seaton begin to rise from the catastrophic economic effects of its recent past."

"Seaton Beach Developments is a small independent company made up of a group of friends with a passion for Seaton."

"Many of Seaton's planned and approved developments that are yet to be constructed will help to transform Seaton into a busy, vibrant and attractive destination centre for visitors and residents alike."

"This will, in turn, bring new prosperity to businesses and services in the surrounding area."

He also told Pulman's View: "It is vitally important to us that your readers express their support or otherwise for our plans on the East Devon District Council planning portal. Without their support this wonderful building may never be built."

Comments can be made at www.planning.eastdevon.gov.uk by searching application number 16/0997/MFUL. Mr Dowling also encouraged residents to visit their website at www.seaton-beach.co.uk and share their views by emailing info@seatonbeach.co.uk. East Devon District Council aims to make a decision no later than August.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

SOUTH SOMERSET Chamber calls for 'clear message' that UK is still open for business

SOMERSET Chamber of Commerce says the government must give a clear message that Britain is open for business following the EU Referendum.

Chamber chief executive Dale Edwards said it is time to get on with strategic and investment decisions, which were put on hold because of the uncertainty around the EU referendum.

The chamber says it has been uncertain times for a couple of years, with last year's General Election and the Scottish referendum also having affected the focus on business.

Mr Edwards said: "The months of campaigning have taken their toll on businesses up and down the country,

"Now that the British electorate has decided that the United Kingdom should leave the EU, the government must provide a clear plan with time-lines for the next steps, starting with clear monetary and fiscal policies to minimise the impact of any short and medium term uncertainty.

"Whether or not our politicians have the courage to take the big, tough, domestic decisions needed to create a fantastic environment for business is a question I hear again and again from business people across the county."

He called for a "clear message" from the government that the UK is open for business, and stressed that the government must also do whatever it takes to instil confidence, both domestically and internationally.

Mr Edwards continued: "Somerset businesses of all sizes and across all sectors will have questions that will need answering – questions about export procedures, the impact on interest rates, implications for workers originating in the EU. All of these, and others, need urgent attention."

■ SOUTH Somerset joined the national trend and voted to leave the European Union in Thursday's referendum, with 57.2 per cent against 42.8 per cent in favour of remaining. The turnout was 78.6 per cent.

From the deputy editor's chair Trust in your local newspaper

LAST week I finally got round to watching Spotlight, the Oscar-winning film on The Boston Globe's special investigative team who exposed years of systemic child abuse by Catholic priests in Massachusetts – and the subsequent cover-up by the church.

It was a refreshing change to see journalists in a movie not portrayed as the "bad guys" – and reminded me why journalism was a profession I wanted to get into in the first place.

At the Academy Awards, accepting the trophy for Best Picture, producer Blye Pagon Faust said: "We would not be here today without the heroic efforts of our reporters. Not only do they effect global change but they absolutely show us the necessity for investigative journalism."

It was watching another film that inspired me in the first place – All The President's Men – which starred Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman as legendary Washington Post reporters Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein, who broke the story of the Watergate Scandal that led to the eventual resignation of President Nixon.

And although nothing we do here at Pulman's View could possibly compare to the work of the Spotlight team or Woodward & Bernstein, we still endeavour to aim high.

As a community newspaper, we make sure that those in public office – whether on your local town council or representing you in Westminster – are held to account.

Our industry may be struggling but the survival of newspapers is imperative.

One of the elements we bring to the mix that TV and radio can't match is the local angle. There's a big difference between regional and local, and we certainly don't have a local TV channel here in Pulman's Country.

The web, of course, can offer everything from global stories to something that just affects you and your neighbours. Social media is obviously a popular way for people to source "local news" these days (we use it as a starting point for many a story ourselves).

But such outlets as Twitter do not have fact checkers. And although we make our share of mistakes, you can trust what you read in this newspaper far more than what people may be saying online.

In the movies, reporters are so often played as the cynical, tough talking type, who will literally stop at nothing to "get the story".

But, in the main, they're just trying to do their job – making sure bad news isn't swept under the carpet by the powers-that-be and fighting for justice.

OTTERY ST MARY Celebrating independents

AN exciting new initiative is set to be launched in Ottery St Mary by the chamber of commerce to help boost local independent retailers.

Ottery Independents Weekend will see shops and businesses in Ottery working together to encourage residents to visit the local shops and businesses rather than high street chains in Exeter or shop on the internet.

'Independent's Day' was a national campaign to get the people of Britain to shop at independent shops and restaurants on July 4th (American Independence Day). Ottery St Mary is going one step further by creating a weekend to encourage people into the town with promotions, offers and events from Friday, July 1st, to Monday, July 4th.

The chamber has also introduced an Ottery Loyalty Card for the weekend.

SIDMOUTH Plans to protect seafront move forward as consultation opens

PLANS to protect Sidmouth seafront have taken a step forward after a steering group met to discuss the shortlisted options as part of a public consultation process to reach a preferred choice for the town.

The meeting of the Sidmouth and East Beach Management Plan (BMP) steering group took place on Thursday, June 16th at Kennaway House in Sidmouth – the day after the public consultation commenced on the shortlist options, which was also held at this venue.

The BMP's aims are to continue to protect Sidmouth and East beach against coastal erosion and flooding in an integrated, justifiable and sustainable way across both Sidmouth Town Beach and East Beach, as well as to reduce the rate of erosion to the east of the River Sid.

The steering group will be meeting again mid-August to discuss feedback from the public consultation, comments received from the steering group and CH2M's recommendations for the preferred options.

AXMINSTER Crisis meeting called between furious residents and developer

WAINHOMES is set to come under heavy fire at a crisis meeting with furious Cherry Tree Road and Catnip Close residents in Axminster tonight.

Axminster Town Council brokered the meeting with Wainhomes after desperate residents turned to the authority for advice and help with "serious safety concerns" over rotting fence posts and subsidence.

They did this during the June meeting of Axminster Town Council and in the debate that followed, town and district councillor Ian Hall said: "It can only be a matter of time before somebody is hurt, gardens are slipping. It seems that Wainhomes is winding up business there and they can't wait to get out."

Residents claim that fence posts, used as retaining walls, are rotten and that there is a danger of subsidence of earth into neighbours' gardens and of a walkway.

Wainhomes is said to have accepted the invitation, and the public meeting has been scheduled for 6pm in Axminster Guildhall today, Tuesday, June 28th.

Wainhomes was invited to comment, but had not come back at the time of going to press.

Race for district seat will not affect town council business

WITH the EU referendum still fresh in the mind of the country, Honiton residents will soon be asked to return to the polls and vote in a new district councillor.

The vote was triggered last month when former Honiton mayor David Foster resigned from his position on the council citing growing work and family commitments.

Four people have put their names forward for the Honiton St Michael's vacancy on East Devon District Council, with the vote to be held in July. They are Ashley Alder (UKIP), Henry Brown (Labour), John Taylor (Independent East Devon Alliance) and Jenny Brown (Conservative). The candidate's deadline passed on Friday, June 24th.

Three of the candidates currently sit on Honiton Town Council and a spokesperson confirmed the council is determined not to let the debate spill into council business.

HERITAGE and Tourism Minister David Evennett made a flying visit to Seaton Jurassic, taking a particular interest in the newly-opened wildlife garden. Mr Evennett was also given a tour of Seaton beach and Beer Quarry Caves. The minister said: "The Jurassic Coast is one of the world's most important landscapes and one of our country's natural gems. "It is wonderful to see how well this unique coastline is being looked after so that it continues to attract vital tourism to the region, while ensuring it is protected for generations to come. "Seaton Jurassic is a fantastic example of a tourist attraction that is fun but educational too."

Doug Hulyer, chairman of the Jurassic Coast Partnership, said: "We are delighted that the minister with portfolio for World Heritage Sites has taken the opportunity visit England's only natural site, and see for himself the positive economic and social impact that this globally important status can have when communities work together for a shared goal."

Seaton remembers those lost during Battle of the Somme

MEMBERS of the Seaton branch of the Royal British Legion will conduct a short act of remembrance at the War Memorial in St Gregory's Churchyard on Friday, July 1st, to remember those lost during the Battle of the Somme.

The act will start at 11am, and branch chairman Derek Payne said: "The focus of this is the Centenary of the Battle of the Somme, which started on July 1st 1916 and was the costliest battle in human terms of the British and Commonwealth Army.

"A total of 19,240 men lost their lives on the first day of a battle that lasted until November 1916. "In particular, we remember three men from Seaton who made the ultimate sacrifice in that battle."

They are: Lieutenant Colonel Harry Allardyce, aged 30, attached to 13th battalion Northumberland Fusiliers who was killed on July 1st 1916 and is buried in Dartmoor Cemetery, Becordel-Becourt, Somme, France.

Private 18726 Reginald Percy Gigg, aged just 19, of D Company, 9th battalion Devonshire Regiment, killed on July 1st 1916 and is buried in The Devonshire Cemetery, Nametz, Somme, France.

Private 20110 George Carslake, of 1st/5th battalion, Prince of Wales Own (West Yorkshire Regiment), killed on 15 July 1915 and is buried in Authuille Military Cemetery, Somme, France.

Mr Payne added: "Members of Seaton Branch RBL visited the graves of these men earlier this year, on a trip organised by Devon County and tributes were laid at their graves, where they lay in peace, with the many thousands of their comrades.

"All are welcome to join us in these few minutes of remembrance and reflection."

Charitable status confirmed for Gateway

SEATON Gateway Theatre Company (formerly Seaton's Voice) has had its charitable status confirmed.

The Charity Commission entered the organisation onto its register on June 22nd.

Being confirmed as a charity means that Seaton Gateway Theatre Company can apply for grants not accessible to non-charities. It is the next step in a process securing the future of the town hall.

As previously reported, Seaton Town Council accepted the transfer of the town hall from East Devon District Council.

The town council moved to Marshlands and Seaton Gateway Theatre Company was issued with a 30-year automatic renewal town hall lease.

A spokesperson for Seaton Gateway Theatre Company said: "The registration as a charity signifies a new phase and brings to an end the need to save the building. The trustees will keep this building at the heart of its community."

Chairman of trustees Alan Nicholas is photographed parading the certificate from The Charity Commission with fellow trustees and volunteers.

We're out: region sides with majority in vote to leave EU

THE leave campaign have triumphed in the EU referendum, with more people turning out to vote than in last year's general election.

In a result that was too close to call until the early hours of Friday morning, Brexit won with just 51.9 per cent of all votes cast as more than 30million people went to the polls.

But how did your area vote?

In East Devon there was a 78.9 per cent turnout with 54.1 per cent voting to leave – 48,040 of the votes – and 45.9 per cent voted to remain – 40,743 votes.

West Dorset received a 79.4 per cent

by Lottie Welch
and Peter Hodges

turnout with 51 per cent – 33,267 of the votes – wanting to leave and 49 per cent – 31,924 votes – opting to remain.

There was a 78.6 per cent turnout in South Somerset with 57.2 per cent of voters – 56,940 votes – wanting to leave and 42.8 per cent – 42,537 votes – wishing to stay.

Overall in the South West, 3,172,730 people came out to vote giving Brexit 52.6 per cent of the votes and remain 47.4 per cent.

Prime Minister David Cameron is to step down in October following the result as he had pushed for the country to remain. He said that “fresh leadership” was needed.

Politics professor Colin Talbot, a professor of government and public policy at the University of Manchester, has stated that due to the result, the UK will break up, with Scotland leaving before Britain leaves the EU.

He said: “It is certainly going to trigger a prolonged period of considerable turmoil in the EU. Part of what will happen with that is that many anti-EU parties in Europe will call for referendums.

“Marine Le Pen has already called for a referendum in France. But the EU can't give Britain a good deal because then it will make other countries think they can also leave and get a good deal.

“It won't be as bad as the 2007/8 recession, but it's going to be awful chaos and could take five to 10 years to stabilise.

“In the short term there will be a minor recession, long term there will be a lower GDP growth.

“Another big political aspect that nobody is talking about is Scotland, which voted to Remain. The SNP will almost certainly call another referendum.

“Technically it is the London government that will call a referendum, but there would be riots in the streets of Scotland if they were denied a new referendum.

“I think Scotland will be out of the UK before Britain leaves the EU.”

Tiverton and Honiton MP Neil Parish said the decision of the British people must now be respected.

Mr Parish said: “I personally made the case for Britain to remain in the EU as the best option for British agriculture. But I always made clear that, whatever the result, I would fight tooth and nail to get the best deal for our farmers. I will honour this commitment.

“As we negotiate Britain's new relationship with the EU and new farming policies, I will work hard to ensure the best possible settlement for our agricultural industry. Under my chairmanship, the EFRA Committee will hold the Government to account on its policies to secure the best deal for British agriculture and the environment in the Brexit negotiations.

“On a personal note, I am sad to see the Prime Minister resign. He has done fantastic work leading our country through economic recovery over the last six years. I hope his successor will continue his good work in providing the leadership and the policies this country needs.

“Britain is a great country and, as I reiterated during the campaign, we have a bright future ahead of us – whatever the result. It's now time for politicians to respect the will of the British people, roll up our sleeves and make this new relationship work for Britain.”

Speaking on the resignation of Prime Minister David Cameron, East Devon MP Hugo Swire said: “It is typical of David Cameron that he should put his country first before himself. Obviously I am deeply saddened by his decision to stand aside but I respect that decision in the same way that I accept the decision made by the British people last Thursday.

“Of course, we have a great future as a nation and we must all now come together to work for the best deal possible in our future relations with the EU.”

Remain campaigner Julie Girling has spoken of her disappointment over the result of the EU referendum.

The Conservative MEP for the South West and Gibraltar said: “This is a shattering decision for Britain.

“I am deeply sorry that the people of the UK have chosen this leap in the dark. I believe future generations will question our wisdom.

“The EU has many faults, of course, but I remain convinced that we would be safer, stronger and better off by remaining a member.

“However, the British people have decided otherwise. The Conservative Party, like the whole nation, must put our disagreements behind us and pull together to get the best for Britain.

“As an MEP, I intend to do all I can to make sure we negotiate the best terms possible for our departure and protect our trade, exports and economy.”

Police: scam alert

POLICE have warned about a phone-based scam from what looks like a genuine 01297 number.

A force spokesperson said: “The number calling you is 01297 34011 and is a scam.

“A foreign caller calls claiming to be from a telephone company. They ask you to switch on your computer to fix a virus.

“Do not switch on your computer for persons cold calling claiming you have something wrong with it.

“They are trying to access your personal details.

“Never give out any personal or banking information to persons cold calling.

“Banks and building societies will never cold call asking for this information.

“If you receive a call of this nature, say ‘No’ and put down the receiver.”

The Folly Nursery goes 'global'

They've expanded to another county!

ONE of the great strengths of The Folly is the food, as they put a huge amount of effort into preparing home cooked lunches, with fresh ingredients locally sourced in Devon and now in Somerset!

On the back of the huge success at Dalwood, The Folly now has a branch less than 15 miles away in Somerset, on the edge of Ilton, where they will be continuing their ethos of getting all the children – including babies – into the outdoor classroom.

In Dalwood the ‘Mud Kitchen’ is where the children prepare their own culinary extravaganzas, which will be replicated in Ilton, and Forest School sessions will also be introduced.

There are two events coming up in the under-fives calendar; Saturday, July 9th is the teddy bears' picnic at Dalwood and on Friday, July 15th there will be an open day at The Folly in Ilton. All families with under-fives welcome.

THE Weycroft Bridge B&B helped to raise £100 for Macmillan Cancer Support recently when they held a special tai chi event.

Owner Allan Howlings said: "The weather was not too good although it didn't deter some of our local tai chi enthusiasts coming along and supporting our fund raising event. I think that my wife's homemade cakes also helped to swell the coffers."

Ann entertains at the Guildhall

FORMER government minister Ann Widdecombe's recent visit to Axminster was deemed a "great success" by organisers.

She had been invited by the town's Marie Curie fundraising group to give a talk about her life, before the charity's tea party on Sunday, June 19th.

Group founder Sandy Sinclair said: "The event was a great success, our first major effort in the three years since we started.

"Ann Widdecombe talked at length about her experience with Strictly Come Dancing, and it has clearly made a major impression on a career founded in the more important fields as a cabinet minister.

"She did then provide inside views on the health service, and touched briefly on hanging and abortion, but surprisingly avoided any major contribution to the imminent decision about Brexit.

"Questions elicited more interesting replies, before everyone descended on the fabulous tea provided by Marie Curie volunteers and their assistants.

"Archway Bookshop donated its profit on sales of Ann's books, which she was happy to sign, and generous prizes for the raffle made a valuable contribution to the afternoon's takings of £1,676."

Mr Sinclair praised the many people who had worked hard for the occasion: Simeon Petty of Axe Valley Community College for painting the Minster Green board, Tesco and others who had supplied prizes for the raffle, and the cakemakers and the generous public who contributed to the cost of the teas.

Above all he thanked Axminster resident Joan Davies for the introduction to Ann Widdecombe. Joan and Ann went to school together in Bath and have stayed in touch ever since.

Two choirs to perform at ARC charity concert

A "THRILLING evening" of pop, rock, Motown, gospel and world music is promised during a benefit concert for Axminster-based charity ARC on Wednesday, June 29th.

The concert will be held in Colyford Memorial Hall featuring The Courage To Sing East Devon Choir with special guests plus The Rhythm of Life Choir (the RD&E Hospital staff choir).

ARC operates a counselling service supporting local residents seeking help through difficult and challenging times of profound change and loss.

Both choirs were started by musical director Lorrain de Peyer, who handed over the RD&E choir to Jax Gibbons two years ago to concentrate on building The East Devon Courage to Sing Choir.

Both choirs show what is possible from ordinary non-singers, some of whom had absolutely no experience of singing in a choir before.

The Courage To Sing East Devon Choir meets every Monday evening from 7pm-8.30pm during term time at Kilminster Village Hall.

Visit www.thecouragetosing.co.uk or phone 01297 792874 for more information.

Tickets for the concert, which starts at 7.30pm, are £5 in advance from Archway Book Shop in Axminster or £7 on the door.

Parked car vandalised

A BLUE Citroen was vandalised in Poplar Mount Car Park, Axminster.

The damage was done at some point between 11am on Thursday, June 16th and 10.30am the following day.

PCSO Hayley Widger said: "Someone hit the front windscreen approximately four times, causing a large crack to appear.

"If you have any information regarding this damage, please contact 101 or email 101@dc.police.uk or anonymously via Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 quoting crime reference 40579/16."

Seaton turned into race track for Cycle Fest

■ SHOW MUST GO ON: Seaton Majorettes did a good job in challenging weather conditions. Below, Harbour Road offered a long, flat stretch

SEATON'S spectacular Cycle Fest tested all abilities of racers on a tight town centre circuit with long flat stretches, challenging climbs and tricky corners.

As reported last week, the event was held on June 19th and was deemed to have underlined Seaton's reputation as a place for outdoor activities.

The town centre was cordoned off and turned into a race circuit in the manner of the Monaco Formula 1 Grand Prix but with racing cycles in an English small town setting instead.

AXE Vale Festival chairman Tony Bengert was very pleased when summing up this year's event.

The attendance figure won't be known until advance ticket sales outlets report back, but Mr Bengert said: "On Saturday morning it was the biggest number of people I've seen."

"It was chock a block although it thinned out in the afternoon – and it was steady on Sunday." Apart from some light showers, the festival stayed dry on Saturday.

It could have been a different story, though, and Mr Bengert said: "We were very lucky on Saturday. Places only a few miles away had an inch and a half of rain."

Commenting on the show as a whole, he said: "The major difference was the entertainment in the main ring."

"Everyone have waxed lyrical about how good it was."

"Exit surveys indicate people had a good time and we have had lots of praise from the traders."

This was the 22nd edition of the show, which over the years has raised more than £400,000 for local causes.

Ducks away... all 524!

CHARDSTOCK: The Great Chardstock Duck Race 2016 featured 524 sponsored participants on June 5th.

Chardstock Street Fayre Team spokesperson Graham Vyse said: "This was yet another wonderful community activity in the village and not a single duck was harmed. "524 ducks were sponsored and the first three to 'paddle' to Kit Bridge belonged to Claire Price, Max Waller and Tony Booth.

"Chardstock Street Fayre Team wishes to thank all who supported the event and helped to raise over £750 for good causes, which is a record.

"The main beneficiaries of street fayre fundraising activities this year are Devon Freewheelers and The British Heart Foundation as well as other more local good causes."

The next major fundraising activity to be organised by the team is Chardstock Street Fayre, which will take place on Saturday, September 3rd.

Hospiscare's music in the garden

COOMBE RALEIGH: A special music event will be held as part of the Hospiscare open garden event on July 2nd.

Organiser Caroline Padget said: "The idea, is that you bring your deck chairs and table and your picnic supper. You are free to walk around the gardens, and observe some of the unusual ornamental conifers whilst listening to some live music."

The event which is being called "Music for a summer night" will include Honiton Town Band, The Wyndham Singers, The Sheldon Singers and Jazz and contemporary music duo Paul and Colin Mitchell.

The evening will take place at Coryhill, Combe Raleigh, and tickets are available in advance for £7 or if there are any left, on the gate for £10. Order your tickets by calling 01392 688020 or 01404 46452.

■ IDYLLIC: Coryhill's fantastic garden will hopefully prove to be the ideal setting for the "Music for a summer night" event

Run helps hall

UMBORNE: The Umborne Ug and summer barbecue proved very popular and raised £1,140.

Organisers of the event say the money raised will be used to build an extension for Umborne Hall.

Held on Saturday, May 28th, the event attracted more than 120 runners in total, taking part in either the main 10k race or the 2.5k fun run.

A spokesperson for the organisers said: "After the runs there was a bar, barbecue, hot drinks and lots of delicious cakes made by members of the local community

"Thank you to everyone who helped with this, and Eleanor Wood for organising the race."

Photographed are some of the multi-skilled race marshals putting in a shift on the cake stall.

Flowers arranged over wrought iron

COLYFORD AND DISTRICT FLOWER CLUB: Tuesday, June 7th saw an inspiring afternoon with National Demonstrator Pam Lewis from Wiltshire.

Pam is also a blacksmith so used her own wrought iron stands and structures, including a smaller wrought iron stand (a yellow arrangement), a galvanised bucket (blue and white), a black urn (pretty pink), a silver oblong vase (green and white, stunning against the silver), a very large oblong structure made from two pieces of wood from an old shed and screwed together (statement orange) and lastly a metal stand which must have been eight feet high, using trachycarpus ferns. Pam did two arrangements on the front with deep purple flowers, striking against the black frame. Pam then produced a smaller version of each arrangements. Jean Underdown gave the vote of thanks.

The next meeting is at 2.15pm on July 5th at Colyford Hall. The demonstrator will be Tracy Johnson from Torquay on 'In touch with nature'. The competition theme - 'A seascape using driftwood' - is not for prizes, but to extend and practice skills.

Tales of steam era

THORNCOMBE RAIL ACTIVITIES CLUB: John Gulliver brought a selection of his railway photos to the club to tell the story of the last days of steam on the mainline and its subsequent return under the preservation guise.

John bought his first camera as a youngster in Cornwall just after the end of steam on the mainline there. On moving to the Birmingham he photographed the final days of steam on the former GWR lines through the city.

He presented a collection of superb shots of the final days of Castles, Manors and Halls (and even some LMS locos) including atmospheric views of the old Snow Hill station.

John told of steam's revival on the mainline from the arrangement that enabled Flying Scotsman to evade the steam ban to the increasing steam specials on the mainline.

A memorable evening of superb photos with the stories behind them entertainingly told.

The next club meeting is on Wednesday, July 20th at 7.30pm in Thorncombe Village Hall when David Hartland will give an illustrated talk, 'Tales from a Modern Railway Contractor'.

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AXE RIVER: The June meeting saw members and guests enjoy a musical evening with Julia Green, a member of music and theatre groups in the Devon area.

After refreshments, upcoming events were discussed, including involvement at the Axe Vale Show, July's coffee morning and the August Lanhydroc trip.

In July members will be learning how to fillet fish from local fishmonger Mark Macsorson.

Meetings are at the United Reform Church Hall, Chard Road, Axminster, third Tuesday of the month.

COLYTON: New President Shelagh Derwent opened the meeting. Devon Federation business and events were discussed followed by a decision to hold the July meeting at The Royal Oak Farm, Stockland for a cream tea. Shelagh read Brenda Clark's delegates report of the WI AGM at Brighton.

After tea members were entertained by Lynda Kettle on her thirty years as a set designer for the BBC.

Colyton WI meets on the third Tuesday of the month at the St Johns Hall, Colyton, 2.15 pm.

Demonstrator inspired by Fabergé

AXMINSTER PHOENIX LADIES CLUB:

Members were treated to a display of egg craft recently, courtesy of Anne Pagliero.

Visiting the V&A museum in London a few years ago Anne became fascinated by Fabergé eggs. The Queen has four in her collection out of 55 made for the Russian royal family. When Nicholas II became Czar he commissioned an egg each year for the Czarina and his mother.

The eggs were traditionally given as presents at Easter time, revealing gifts inside once opened. Many can be found in museums throughout the world, particularly in the USA, others are thought to be in private collections.

Anne has replicated some of the designs; some are so complex they can take two years to complete. Eggs used include hens, bantams, ducks, geese, emu and ostrich which are blown and decorated with cloisonné, gold leaf and enamel. The finished results are stunning and Anne has won many Craft Guild awards for her work.

Theo, a descendent of the Fabergé family based in Burlington Arcade, London was so impressed with Anne's work, following her gift of a designer egg to his wife that he made her one of his commissions in 1996 as a one-off gift. A fascinating insight into the Fabergé legacy and their artistry.

Next month's meeting is on July 6th when next year's programme will be discussed, as will suggestions for this year's charity and November's Christmas shopping outing.

The club meets at the URC Hall at 2.30 pm on the second Wednesday of the month.

HONITON EVENING: New President Deborah Chapman introduced Riverford Farm's Matt, demonstrating their new-style recipe boxes, with a tasting session.

The President intends to set up a book club. Arrangements were made for: a Branscombe beach-barbecue, cream tea at Royal Oak Farm, outing to Cheddar and Weston-Super-Mare and a summer lunch and barbecue at a member's house. Later trips include fireworks in Plymouth, a Dartmoor picnic and the Chinese State Circus in November. Ann Dunn won the monthly competition.

Further details on website Honiton WI or contact Secretary Mary Gubby on 01404 43997.

KILMINGTON: Guest John Lowe spoke of his research on the Hamden bomber forced to land on Hameldown on Dartmoor in March 1941, killing all crew.

Outings were discussed and tea at North Bovey and a visit to Darts Farm were suggested.

Phyllis won the competition and Christine the flower competition, with Joy and Phyllis joint second.

At the July 14th meeting Mark McGlade will talk on 'Home Instead, senior care' at 7pm in the Village Hall.

SEATON: At June's meeting members heard that the charity for the year will be Children's Hospice South West: Christine Palacio will host a garden party in August to help raise funds.

A trip to Saltram House, near Plymouth is proposed for September.

The planned speaker was unable to attend so members shared memories of visits to various destinations.

Flower of the Month: 1 Sheila Rumble, 2 Julia Bealing, 3 Judith Lord. General competition: 1 Sheila Rumble, 2 Gwynydd Brazendale, 3 Aimee Guard.

THORNCOMBE: On June 14th Jenny Knight gave a demonstration of willow craft, explaining the process from sourcing through techniques, and showed how to make a beautiful willow flower for the garden.

Members then received their delegate's report following her attendance at the National Annual Meeting held in Brighton on June 11th.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, July 12th at 7.30 pm in the village hall, when members will hear a talk on Kuwait by Rosemary Martin. Hosts will be Sheila Shelley and Tricia Shakeshaft. New members and visitors will be most welcome. Contact Julia Snellock 01460 30135.

Sidford Employment Land: objections

■ WE wish to state our objections to the proposed Sidford Employment Land for the following stated reasons.

This development will have a major impact on our property because we live on the main road through Sidbury from Honiton to the A 3052 and Sidmouth. We already literally feel the impact of the heavy volume of traffic on this road, most especially the increase in very large HGV vehicles. Contrary to stated views this has increased tenfold over that last 15 years, both in volume of flow and vehicle tonnage. The proposed employment land will only increase the volume even further, especially with the possibility of warehousing on the site. This will not only increase the number of large vehicles but may also extend the traffic into the night time hours also. This will mean more noise pollution and vibration very likely 24/7. This main road runs 6 feet from our house walls, which are built straight onto the clay of the hillside. We literally feel the vibration of these juggernauts as they go by, even at the back of the house. More of these will potentially cause structural damage over time. At busy periods we literally can take ten minutes to get out of our parking spots or park on arriving home because of the constant flow of traffic. This will just increase exponentially as the development grows.

We have followed the progress of this development for a very long time, attending all the local meetings when they have been held. We have also attended the meetings at the Council in order to let our concerns be known. Nothing we have seen on these plans has in any way changed our view where this application is concerned. The huge impact on an AONB, loss of precious habitat, damage to the vitality of a major tourist area and major traffic impact means that we have no choice but to object to this proposal in the strongest terms.

TRACEY MORGAN & DIANA TAPLEY,
Sidbury

Christian Aid in Seaton

■ MANY thanks to the Christian Aid committee and helpers in Seaton, and to all those who come along to our events and support our activities.

For the first five months of 2016, we have hosted lunches, a table top sale, a concert, and had door-to-door delivery of envelopes.

Together, we have raised £1,166.74 towards the fantastic work of Christian Aid.

People in poverty are helped immensely by these funds to obtain fresh water and grow their own food.

These are basics of life we all have in this country.

We appreciate the support of the local churches and the community.

Thank you to the collection points of Seaton Gateway, Town Hall and Seaton Post Office for helping with the collection of envelopes.

Ottery hospital

■ I HAVE only lived in Ottery St Mary for just over four years, but it seems clear to me just how much the hospital means to, and is invested in by the community. Indeed, my Mother needed to spend some time there, to recover from a nasty chest infection. Staying there meant she didn't need to waste a much needed bed at Wonford, and visiting her was frequent and easy. Perfect for families with elderly relatives in the area, that needs a transition from Wonford to being cared for at home.

The fact that the community raised £250,000 to help build the hospital, although not under any form of contract, surely means that morally, they do have a stake in the place. It should also mean that the right thing to do, would be to listen to the people who have a stake in the building and its purpose, with regards to its coming or going.

I realise that words like 'morally' and phrases like 'the right thing to do', are beyond the comprehension of most Tory minded people, whose decision making process lie firmly within the confines of materialistic values and P & L sheets.

The £250,000 raised by the community must have been a good percentage of the build cost, so if the building does end up being sold, that same percentage of the selling price should be given back to the community. Although there would be no legal justification for this, it would be 'morally' the 'right thing to do'.

Axminster regeneration plan – no relief?

■ IT was good to read about the proposed Regeneration Programme Board for Axminster and its rational link with the Neighbourhood Plan and recently adopted Local Plan. This has to be good for Axminster.

But at the same time, based purely on the information reported in the local press this week, it also seems to highlight a gross anomaly when stating that a north-south relief road is key to help deliver a target of one job created for every house built.

Axminster has had this A358 through traffic problem for many years but nevertheless large scale housing development has continued relentlessly without a relief road. Currently another large scale development is intended on the east side of the town and the Local Plan dictates that this development must fund the "key" north-south relief road. From previous presentations we have been told the way to do that is to build the relief road through the new development which effectively means no relief road until Axminster's "regeneration" is in its late stages - which would be too late to have been of any "help" and still leave Axminster with a traffic problem, albeit a lesser one. Hence the anomaly.

But a separately funded north-south 'relief road' outside the town boundary (it does not have to be an expensive "bypass") would remove that anomaly.

And geographically an efficient and relatively eco-friendly route is feasible without constructing it on the actual flood plain. It would facilitate a good junction at the A35; it would relieve some of the pressure on Weycroft bridge; but most important of all it would genuinely free up Axminster for regeneration.

Remember Jo Cox

■ IT is with great sadness that we learn of the news that Jo Cox MP has passed away following an attack by a man in her constituency in West Yorkshire. Jo sadly lost her fight after she suffered fatal wounds from being shot multiple times and also stabbed. She is survived by her husband and two young daughters, our thoughts and prayers are with them tonight.

Jo, a wife and mother of two, was elected as Labour MP for Batley and Spen at last year's general election, she stood on a platform of peace and solidarity with our most vulnerable in society including the refugees who are fleeing war-torn Syria. Jo volunteered and campaigned for an anti-slavery movement, The Freedom Fund, which further showed her commitment to the injustice many people still face in this world.

The attack took place on Thursday, June 17th in Jo's hometown of Birstall, she was out campaigning for 'Labour In' after finishing her weekly surgery for her constituents. It is still unclear as to why the crazed killer did what he did, although, there is some witnesses saying that it was politically motivated by the far right as the murderer shouted "Britain first" before firing, this has not been verified as of yet.

Both the 'In' and 'Out' camps suspended their campaigns for the rest of the day out of respect. It is an attack on our democracy that any individual should be murdered in cold blood for exercising their free speech, regardless of who supports or disagrees with them. Hate must be extinguished wherever it resides, only through compassion and understanding, can we overcome the poison which fuelled this man's actions. Jo will be remembered for being someone who fought for those very things, let her work not have been in vain.

HENRY BROWN,

Spokesperson for Tiverton and Honiton Labour Party

Councillor is 'too busy'

■ I REFER to the View front page coverage [June 4th], and Editor's comments, of Cllr Moulding's commitments, and his response to criticism (since he accepted Chairmanship of Devon County Council), that he is 'not too busy to do his best for Axminster'.

This may be Cllr Moulding's opinion, but many Axminster residents do not share his confidence. Locals who attend Axminster Town Council's monthly public meeting will have heard him declare his list of 'interests', twenty items long. These activities, in addition to the various Town Council committees on which he has chosen to serve, makes many people wonder at Cllr Moulding's need for this extraordinary amount of involvement/committee sitting. Many will also wonder about a healthy work/home balance, ie that which keeps a person's feet on the ground, and the mind and heart connected with the lives of the ordinary people they, as councillors, supposedly serve.

Most crucially, many locals, will now be considering how Cllr Moulding, with his known long-term involvement and interest in Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre, managed to be oblivious of Bovis builders' closing of a Public Right of Way linking Millwey and the town centre, an issue which is still under investigation. And consequently how, with the latest commitment he has accepted, he can be relied upon to 'do his best for Axminster', especially with future developments he and his fellow Conservatives have in store for our town.

Plea for tolerance after referendum result

■ SEATON and Colyton IN Europe is shocked and disappointed by the referendum result, but we respect the majority vote to leave the EU. We wish to thank almost half the voters in East Devon who voted for international cooperation. I write immediately after the result, but the adverse consequences of the vote are already beginning to unfold in a 'Brexit tax' on currency costs for anyone going on a foreign holiday.

However there are bigger issues at stake. We hope everyone, whichever way they voted, will show tolerance and support towards the people from other European countries who are here in East Devon, whether to work or as visitors. Indeed British people living abroad, whose position will have equally been thrown into doubt, will be hoping for the same from their fellow Europeans.

MARTIN SHAW,

Seaton: glass half-full

■ I HAVE read Tony Woodman's rant against Seaton Town Council – and that is for them to reply to.

Not only was he Mayor, he was also the leader of the Council for the last year. As such he would seem to have been in the prime position to correct some of the problems of which he complains (such as signage).

I have to take exception to his disparaging remarks about the support the Town Council has given over the years to help achieve Seaton Jurassic.

Recently many people have said that Seaton is now on the up and that it has a buzz about it.

That is due to many new innovations, some instigated by the Council, some by the Seaton Town Team and, of course, highlighted by Seaton Jurassic.

However, as chairman of the Seaton Visitor Centre Trust, I have to make the point that, surely, by Seaton Jurassic bringing up to 60,000 new visitors a year to the town, there must be potential benefit to the local traders if only they will capitalise on it.

So, Seaton's glass is now at least half-full and still filling. Don't let us be disheartened by those who will always say it is half-empty just because they may have failed.

BERNARD DUNFORD,
Seaton Visitor Centre Trust

No deterrent to tippers

■ I AM a resident of Swan Road, Seaton, and I live very close to the recycling area. Whilst it is emptied on a regular basis at times it is filthy. People use it to dump household rubbish. I have attached some photographs that I took today, it may not be clear but cat litter has been dumped by the blue sacks.

On occasions it has been a lot worse, I do sympathise with the guys who have to clear this up.

The other night, there were two guys going through the clothing recycling, which was strewn round, they then walked off with a number of plastic bags full of clothes.

There is a sign that states that fly tippers will be prosecuted and that surveillance cameras are in operation, this does not appear to act as a deterrent.

Bowen Therapy and Energy Healing

Melanie Philip

BOWEN THERAPY & ENERGY HEALING

"Chains of Habit are to light to be felt until they are too heavy to be broken"

WE as human beings are truly creatures made up of habits. If you take some time to observe the way you think, the way you move the way you behave, the way you talk, you will see that many of your moments are very similar and repetitive.

This is also true of our energy it forms into patterns and grooves that although one day may have served us well, but is it still true for you today or is it proving detrimental to your health and wellbeing?

Bowen Therapy which works very closely alongside Energy Medicine works to bringing awareness to the habits of your body, your energies and the habits of your mind as all three of these weave together and are closely intertwined.

Many energy behaviours that appear irregular, without logic, or even counter to good health are leftover habits that once served a purpose but are now counter - productive.

Energy Medicine combines concepts and procedures from ancient healing and spiritual traditions with contemporary scientific understanding of health and healing. It can be used both as a complementary practice and as a health support system in its own right. It is at the cutting edge of both clinical and scientific understanding of how better to support health and healing and it reaches into the very heart of being human.

To learn more about this revolutionary combination of body and energy work and to receive an energy assessment please call Melanie 07715952896

Stress describes the feelings people experience when the demands made upon us are greater than the ability to manage them

HELPING you to take control of your life.

Stress describes what most people experience when the demands made upon individuals are greater than the ability to manage them. People can feel overloaded, under tremendous pressure and feel tense or emotional.

Stress affects everyone, young and old and is a completely normal reaction that will be experienced by everyone from time to time when faced with new or challenging situations.

External stressors are sources of stress that we are aware of around us, these can include traumas, life experiences or simply daily hassles. Internal stressors are the sources of stress that are inside us and are often the most common sources of stress. They are the thoughts and feelings that pop into the head and cause unease, these can include unrealistic expectations, uncertainties, low self esteem and apprehensions.

The work place is also known to be a big influence in stress. A study found that more than half of people in work suffer from stress over a period of a year, and statistics show that a quarter of workers have taken time off sick due to stress and that stress is the leading cause of sick leave. Common causes of stress at work include; workloads, long hours, responsibilities, role expectations, bullying or harassment, lack of job security, poor working environment, and lack of support.

Stress can manifest itself as many different symptoms, ranging from physical to psychological and behavioural, and people may experience these to varying degrees. Physical symptoms can include; increased heart rate, sweaty palms, muscle tension, sleep disturbance, fatigue, vomiting, change in breathing patterns, dry mouth, headaches, nausea or dizziness, indigestion or heartburn and sudden weight loss or gain. Psychological symptoms can include anxious thoughts, irritability, low self esteem and confidence, inability to concentrate, feeling fearful, feeling unable to cope, difficulty making decisions, feeling negative and lack of interest in life, feeling alone, loss of creativity, withdrawal, frustration and confusion. Behavioural symptoms can include interrupted or lack of sleep, use of drugs or alcohol, changes in appetite, avoiding situations, changing habits, nail biting, teeth grinding, neglect of physical appearance, lack of communication, putting off difficult jobs and giving excuses.

The first step in helping to manage the stress that you experience is to recognise what is happening is a natural response, then changing it. Michelle Hague is here to help you take control of your life.

Clinical Hypnotherapy can help to reduce stress and cognitive behavioural therapy and mindfulness have all been used to treat it. For more information or to see if Michelle can help you call 07761773563.

Podiatrist / Chiropodist Lindy Parry

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Traditional Acupuncture Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVER-

GREENHEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

Eden Garden Development

Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets).

Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com trees with preservation orders, roadside and dangerous trees to fruit tree pruning and we also sell barn stored seasoned logs. With a friendly team of skilled operatives who always leave every site Tip Top tidy. Sean and his team are all qualified in arboriculture meaning they have studied the science of trees as well as the use of practical machinery.

This can make all the difference as they know when and how to best carry out work to your trees. One satisfied customer said "Mr Kelly has the ability to "see" how a tree should look in its setting. This enables him and his efficient workmates to change a scruffy tree into an elegant addition to the garden.

Unlike many workers he always leaves the site in a tidy condition". Sean also holds an Advanced Arboricultural Technician qualification so, if you have a tree in an awkward space or near buildings, Sean will know the safest and best way to carry out the work.

It's the time of year when we Brits prepare to demonstrate our bravery, as we brace ourselves - no matter what the weather throws at us - to dine al fresco.

Ready to battle with the barbecue and wrestle unwieldy picnic tables, folding chairs and wobbly parasols?

You betcha - because nothing will deter us from enjoying that heady combination of good food and fresh air. Indeed, a recent survey by Karcher saw 80% of respondents state they'll persevere with plans for dining outdoors, regardless of showers or storms.

Nature, of course, may be beyond our control, but there's no excuse for a shabby table setting, as designers have transformed picnicware - once the poor relation of tableware - with stunning designs that make them suitable for use indoors and outdoors all year round.

So even if the skies let you down, at least make sure your setting is a feast for the eyes. And what better time to get cracking than National BBQ Week (May 30-June 4)?

We've grilled the foodie experts for their top tips...

FLORAL FEAST

Pretty floral patterns in soft shades conjure a country garden look, while bright blooms can evoke a sunny Mediterranean style.

"You can't beat an al fresco meal in a beautiful country garden. When my husband and I first started living together, I made a feast in our garden and got a violinist to come and play his favourite classical music. It was a pretty special date night," says Natasha Corrett, 33, creator of the Honestly Healthy foodie website, and author of Honestly Healthy In A Hurry (Hodder & Stoughton, £25).

"I keep food as simple as possible, with dishes such as Middle Eastern sweet potato salad, wild rice citrus and roasted radish salad, and beetroot burgers," she explains.

As for the settings: "I like a casual, informal look, with cutlery in kilner jars, so people can help themselves. My favourite tablecloth is white, with 'Healthy' hand-painted in huge green letters, [£375] from Summerill & Bishop."

TABLE TREATS

Marks & Spencer has a super range of melamine tableware to suit a traditional country garden tea party. Choose from the flower-scattered Spring Bloom designs, or the delicately patterned pink and white Rosalie collection, with side plates from £6 each. For a romantic occasion, a Spring Bloom 2 Person Wicker Heart Hamper, including plates, wine glasses, cutlery and table accessories, is a steal at £45. Their vibrant Peru melamine floral range is also a real winner: Salad Bowl, £8; Side Plate, £3; Round Tray, £15.

My favourite collection is Collier Campbell's Flowerdrop melamine range, featuring retro-style blooms on a white and aqua background: Dinner Plate £7; Side Plate, £6; Bowl, £6; Tumbler, £5. And for a luxury touch, consider a Ribbed Leaf Bowl, with matt nickel finish, £33, In-Spaces.

OUT OF THE BLUE

Blues are peaceful colours, conjuring sunny skies, glittering seas and lakes - which will raise cheer even if the weather isn't co-operating!

"Nature offers what the indoors can't - natural beauty. I love the combination of water and a lush green landscape, so being beside a lake, an ocean, a river or a pond is my perfect setting for a picnic meal," says New Zealand-born chef Peter Gordon, author of Savour: Salads For All Seasons (Jacqui Small, £25).

"My most memorable al fresco meal was cooking and eating freshly caught sea-food and summer fruits on a boat jetty at beauty spot and wildlife haven Waterfall Bay, in Marlborough Sounds, New Zealand. Everything was perfect, from the weather to the food; I thought I'd died and gone to heaven. "I favour a rustic look for a table, with a plain white linen tablecloth, candles, even during the day, and definitely chairs with backs, even if they're canvas, because comfort is all."

TABLE TREATS: Painting walls, fences and furniture in blue shades will set the scene, and Cuprinol's Garden Shades range includes some beautiful blues, such as Iris and Forget-Me-Not, £23.49 for 2.5L.

Talking Tables makes creating stunning settings easy, and their Coastal collection is well-priced and attractive. A stripe or spot design Bone China Mug, £8.50; Melamine Plate, £5.50, and Paper Lanterns, £10 for pack of three.

House of Fraser's Linea Home range has an appropriate seaside-inspired Regatta collection, with fish design mugs, bowls and plates, currently on sale (so snap them up fast!) from £2.50 each, House of Fraser. Enjoy a clear horizon with blue Sky Coasters, £16 for set of four, Barnaby & Co.

▲ Flowerdrop Melamine range, dinner plate 7; side plate, 6, platter, 8, bowl, 6, and tumbler, 5, all available from Collier Campbell. PA Photo/handout.

HOT HOUSE TABLE

Turn up the temperature with a sultry setting, full of lush green foliage and tropical birds.

"I'm hooked on eating outdoors because it feels so liberating not to have four walls around you. My forthcoming wedding will be held in Puglia, Italy, followed by an outdoor banquet," says Shirin Kourous, who's co-authored, along with business partner Yasmine Larizadeh, The Good Life Eatery Cookbook (Ebury Press, £20). "We will be in the hilltops, surrounded by olive groves and looking out over the coast. I've already had a highly enjoyable tester session with family and friends, so I know it's going to be perfect."

"The menu will be just like our food - healthy, delicious and featuring dishes from our new book, inspired by a melting pot of cultures, from Mexican to Californian and Iranian."

"My table style is simple. I hate fuss, so sometimes I'll have just a table runner, otherwise a linen or cotton cloth, lots of fresh flowers in jugs, bowls of fruit, and pretty glassware."

New venue added to Concerts in the West circuit

Oliver Wass and Luba Tunnicliffe

FOR its July concert tour, Concerts in the West has added a new venue - The Dance House in Crewkerne - to its selection of distinctive arts centre venues in Ilminster and Bridport.

Audiences across the border in West Dorset and East Somerset now won't have so far to travel to see the supremely talented young harpist Oliver Wass perform in partnership with the highly accomplished viola player Luba Tunnicliffe.

Both Wass and Tunnicliffe are brilliant, award winning musicians whose outstanding abilities has won them scholarships to the prestigious Guildhall School of Music & Drama. They are both already experienced soloists with a string of concerts at top venues to their names.

Oliver Wass has a First Class Honours degree from the University of York where he was awarded the highest ever final recital mark at the University, as well as the Blake music prize. He has won many other competitions, including three concerto prizes in 2014 alone and is now in his first year studying on a full scholarship at the Guildhall School of Music & Drama.

A former scholarship student at the Guildhall, Luba Tunnicliffe won the Max and Peggy Morgan Award in 2012 with the Bartók Viola Concerto and was the viola soloist in Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante with Alexander Janiczek and the Guildhall Chamber Orchestra at the Milton Court Concert Hall in 2014.

Oliver Wass and Luba Tunnicliffe perform at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, July 15th at 8pm. Tickets are £15, and a pre-show supper is available for £13 but must be pre-booked. To book call 01460 55783 or visit www.themeeting-house.org.uk.

The duo will then play at The Dance House, Gouldsbrook View, North Street, Crewkerne on Saturday, July 16th at 7.30pm (doors 6.45pm). Tickets are £15, available in advance by emailing concertsinthewest@gmail.com

A thrilling evening of Pop, Rock, Motown, Gospel and World Music

THE COURAGE To Sing East Devon Choir is thirty people strong now and has been going for just over a year. You don't need to be an experienced singer to be in this choir, you just need to want to experience the uplifting feeling of the great music the choir sings. There are no auditions and it meets weekly during term times in Kilminster, East Devon.

This is a special concert for ARC a registered Axminster based charity which is completely self-funded by donations and community action like this concert. ARC operates a counselling service through The Axminster Medical Centre supporting local residents seeking help through difficult and challenging times of profound change and loss.

With great pleasure The Courage To Sing welcomes the very fantastic RD&E Hospital staff choir, appropriately called The Rhythm Of Life, to be special guests at ARC Axminster Benefit Concert on Wednesday, June 29th. You can expect to be rocking in the isles with an uplifting and inspiring performance from them. Both choirs show what is possible from ordinary non-singers some of whom had absolutely no experience of singing in a choir before they joined either of these choirs.

The Courage To Sing choir has just finished recording a CD from which profits of copies sold at the concert will also go to ARC.

The choir's musical director is independent recording artist Lorrain de Peyer who also offers musical team building courses to local organizations and corporation's staff and guests wanting to experience the benefits of singing and how it can transform groups in a positive way. Please come and support us at this fun concert not to be missed if you like a good rock music choir.

Tickets for the concert this Wednesday, June 29th at 7.30pm are £5 in advance (from Archway Bookshop) or £7 at the door. The concert takes place at Colyford Memorial Village Hall, Swan Hill Road, Colyford.

■ The Courage To Sing East Devon Choir meets every Monday evening from 7-8.30pm during term time at Kilminster Village Hall. For more details visit www.thecouragetosing.co.uk, call 01297 792874, or email info@thecouragetosing.co.uk

CLOKs performance highlight the plights of the people of Chard in the First World War

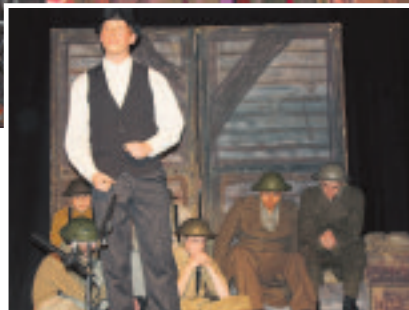

'A KISS Card from Walter', written especially for CLOKs by June and Dave Walsham, is about real people from Chard and all the brilliant things Chard did during WW1.

In collaboration with Chard Concert Brass, this is a show that will become part of Chard's history. Produced and directed by Maria Farey, this show will be moving, honest and at times extremely sad but this group of delightfully talented young people will also find a way of bringing out the happiness, comradeship and love from within these stories. A huge amount of work has been put into this production from lots of different people. Over 200 costumes will help to transport our audience members into 1914 along with the brilliant lighting, sound and set. Despite having GCSEs and A Levels around this time, our cast members have showed commitment and loyalty to this society, which it is clear to see they all love being a part of. Performances take place on Wednesday, June 29th, Thursday, June 30th and Saturday, July 2nd. Unlike other years, there will be no performance on Friday, July 1st, but two performances on the 2nd - a matinee at 2.30pm and an evening at 7.30pm.

Tickets, £8 for adults and £5 concessions, are on sale from Barron's, Chard. Performances are in the Guildhall, Chard.

We look forward to seeing you there!

TUESDAY JULY 12TH
SIDMOUTH: St Francis Tea Dance for Childrens Hospice South West. 2.30pm. 2nd Tuesday of the month. 01395 577122.

Come alone or bring a group

JUNE HAS been a busy month for group visits to the Honey Farm. We have been pleased to welcome members of the Feniton & Buckereil W.I. and the Tuesday Club as well as our regular groups of beekeepers on courses. We've also hosted birthday teas and friends and families looking for a beautiful, peaceful venue for a happy, informal, get-together. Several people have adopted us as their own special place, a haven of peace where they can drop in regularly to unwind and re-charge their batteries in this busy world.

Happiness abounds at the Honey Farm, everyone who comes here has a smile on their faces.

If you come alone you will not be lonely and may well be drawn into conversations which often bounce around the whole tearoom, or you may prefer to sit and have a quiet chuckle at all you hear. At any rate, as soon as you step in you will realise that this is no ordinary tea room.

By coming here you are part of the Honey Farm family and will soon feel our special warmth enfolding you.

We strive to create an atmosphere of beauty, peace and happiness and you, our customers, make it all worthwhile, so come along and see us, on your own or with a friend.

The bees have had a difficult June with uncertain weather and some crops not doing as well as they should have but we still have some delicious honey for you to enjoy.

The garden is popping out into colour everywhere you turn and by popular request we have started selling pollinator plants.

Come and visit us soon, we'll be looking out for you! Blackbury Honey Farm, near Blackbury Camp, Southleigh. Ex24 6JF 01404 871600. Visit the website www.blackbury-farm.co.uk

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS JULY

TIME flies when there's a deadline approaching! Yes, artists we are talking about you! The deadline in question is 16 July, which is the last chance for local artists to submit entries to the Annual Ilminster Open Competition. Selected works are displayed in the Art Gallery throughout August and there are £850 worth of prizes to be won, plus a winner's exhibition in 2017. So don't delay, pick up an entry from the Arts Centre or download one from our website.

Through July the gallery will be showcasing work by Somerset artist, Nancy Farmer. Taking inspiration from the medieval Bestiaries, Nancy has illustrated some of the fantastical beings who inhabit the levels and moors near her studio: pollarded dryads, rhine maidens, flying pigs and many more! Also on show will be her 'drawings from memory', recalling her wild swimming experiences. If you don't know Nancy's work already, come and discover her distinctive and hugely enjoyable world view at the preview on Sunday 3 July, 3–5pm, and meet with Abigail Willis

Nancy at the same time.

We have three very different jazz concerts lined up in July, starting with a gig that for traditionalists. The Pedigree Jazz Band will perform their 'Tribute to Trad' on Friday 1 July, playing some of the tunes that were the soundtrack to the coffee bars and clubs of the 50s and 60s. On Friday 8 we welcome a precociously talented young jazz pianist, Matt Carter, and his quartet. Matt is a protégé of Arts Centre regular Craig Milverton and is fast becoming a name to watch. His special guest will be Martin Dale, the South-West's top saxophonist. Craig himself will be in residence on Friday 22, when his trio presents a tribute to the Gershwin brothers.

Vocalist Laura Collins and guitarist Nigel Price complete the line up for what promises to be a magical evening.

One of our most experienced textile tutors, k3n, returns on Friday 7 for Stitch and Flip. This workshop is a great chance for complete beginners as well as more experienced sewers to learn this versatile technique for piecing fabric together to create cushion covers, table runners and quilts. Bring your own sewing machine, and fabric if you have it. On Thursday 14 tutor Claire Anderson will lead a fascinating new workshop, 'Dream Catch Wall Hangings'; based on the traditional native American dream catcher this workshop involves weaving, and applique techniques. Come along and create a really unusual decorative piece for your home. Children's Art Chest returns on Saturday 23, with a new tutor, Margaret Micklewright. Margaret is an experienced teacher and this is an art class for young artists over 8 who want to develop their drawing and painting skills.

EARLY June saw the closing stages of the David Hall's 30th Anniversary Celebrations when on Friday, 3rd we welcomed the incredibly talented Welsh band, 9Bach. This group has taken traditional Welsh Folk songs and reworked them onto a spectral and haunting sound canvas. A totally unique mix of the atmospheric, evocative and emotional hybrid of the Folk tradition and contemporary influences ensured this was a performance long to be remembered. 9Bach was supported by a young duo called Twelfth Day who also hail from Wales, and are really talented. Certainly an act to watch for future stardom!

Saturday, June 11th saw the welcome return of Crewkerne-based Reg Meuross, who performed with Wiltshire artiste, Jess Vincent. These two highly respected singer/songwriters combined their distinctive talents in a charming and intimate evening of Folk and Country-tinged original and traditional duets. This really was a night of great material, brilliantly played. The evening featured both artistes performing solo as well as duets. A memorable event with two artistes who will no doubt be back in the not-too-distant future.

On Saturday, June 18th we held Petherton Folk Fest, which is now in its 5th year.

Guess what? - we once again had a totally dry day and welcomed larger crowds than ever! We also had more music and dance than in previous years, with greater use of all our venues. There were too many highlights to mention individually but our desire to improve the quality of the day's programme certainly paid dividends. From the opening procession to the end of the Fest, this clearly was a day enjoyed by all. A big "Thank You" to our sponsors – South Somerset District Council, South Petherton Parish Council and local company, Probiotics International Ltd - committee members and volunteers, without whom this event would not happen. And here is an early date for your 2017 diary - we will be back on Saturday 17th June next year!

JULY at The David Hall will be quieter than usual, with just two visiting musical events.

Firstly, on Friday 1st, we welcome back - after a 14-year absence - Steve Ashley, who is one of British Folk's finest singer/songwriters. His songs have been performed by a legion of Folk artistes, including Wizz Jones, Phil Beer and St Agnes Fountain. Since 1974, Steve has consistently melded tradition with innovation and delivered intelligent and inspired English poetry, amid distinctive melodies. Steve is a fantastic live performer who deserves a really large audience.

The month ends on Sunday 31st with a 'Chance to Dance' performance by Scotland's very own Shooenliffy. They are one of the headliners at Sidmouth Festival on the Saturday and will be with us the following day. I am still pinching myself that this is really happening! Being one of Folk music's biggest names means they are bound to be a sellout! As I am writing this, some tickets are still available - but please book soon and note the start time of 7.30pm. This band has travelled the globe and the only possible problem will be fitting all seven members onto our stage! But worry not - this will be done, and we are sure to have another long-to-be-remembered night!

Happy listening to you all, Pete Wheeler

5 TIPS FOR ALTERNATIVE HEATING SYSTEMS

1. HEAT pumps are one environmentally friendly way to heat your home. Ground or air source heat pumps are most popular, as water source heat pumps aren't practical unless you have a lake, river or stream in your garden. Ground source heat pumps extract warmth from the earth and use it to heat your home or hot water. The (above-ground) pump is connected to a series of pipes (the ground loop) buried in the garden and can be used all year round, although you may need a back-up heating system in winter.

2. Air source heat pumps take heat from the air outside and use it indoors. They're either air-to-air pumps, which produce warm (and also cool) air and circulate it through fans, or air-to-water pumps, which supply your home's (wet) central heating system. Air source heat pumps can be less effective when it's colder than -5C, so another form of heating again may be necessary in winter.

3. If your home is heated by radiators, they won't get as hot with a heat pump as they would with a boiler - you'll need to have them on for longer or replace them with more powerful ones. The perfect partner for a heat pump is wet underfloor heating because both work at lower temperatures, but this type of underfloor heating isn't particularly easy to retrofit.

4. Biomass boilers are another eco heating option, ideal if you want to reduce your carbon dioxide emissions and have access to a regular supply of wood. These boilers burn wood chips, pellets or logs and can be used for central heating and hot water. The Energy Saving Trust (www.energysavingtrust.org.uk) says that an automatically fed pellet boiler for an average home costs £9,000-£21,000, including installation, so it's not cheap. However, if you replace an older gas heating system with a biomass system, you could save up to £360 a year, or up to £990 a year compared to an old electric heating system, according to the Trust.

5. If you want to generate your own electricity and have a sunny roof or wall, solar photovoltaic panels are worth considering, but you could fit solar thermal panels, which heat your home's water, instead. According to the Energy Saving Trust, installing a typical solar water-heating system costs around £3,000-£5,000, but the savings you make will be moderate. As well as the solar panels, you'll need a boiler or immersion heater to give you additional hot water and sometimes make the water heated by the panels hotter, especially in winter. You may also have to change your boiler and hot-water cylinder to ones compatible with the panels.

PRODUCT OF THE WEEK

HAVE maximum control over your boiler with the Honeywell Sundial RF2 Pack 2 Wireless Timeswitch (£159.49, Screwfix), which can be used on existing systems (it brings them into compliance with Building Regulations Part L), as well as new installations. You get both a wireless-enabled programmer (to be fitted by a qualified electrician) and a wireless room thermostat, which communicate with each other wirelessly and offer so many settings you're spoilt for choice. For example, you can program your heating and hot water differently every day to whatever suits you and your lifestyle. The Honeywell has a holiday mode, which is perfect for this time of year and ensures you don't waste heating and hot water when you're away, while the Extra Hour function enables you to switch the heating or hot water on for up to three extra hours without altering your usual settings, which could be very useful in winter.

HOW-TO TIP

USE a heatproof metal paint to paint radiators, as standard metal paint may blister. If you're using white, make sure it's a good radiator paint, such as Ronseal Stay White Radiator Paint in Brilliant White (£15.74 for 750ml, B&Q), otherwise it will discolour. Radiators paints are heatproof and designed not to yellow when they get hot, so your radiators should stay white for the long term.

The new Mercedes-AMG GT R: Developed in the "Green Hell"

FROM the world's most demanding racetrack directly onto the road: Never before has Mercedes-AMG packed so much motorsport technology into a production vehicle than into the new AMG GT R. The front-mid-engine concept with transaxle, the twin-turbo V-8 engine rated at 430 kW/585 hp, the extensively modified suspension, the new aerodynamics and the intelligent lightweight construction lay the foundations for an especially dynamic driving experience. Even from afar, the exclusive "AMG green hell magno" special paintwork leaves no doubt as to the sports car's origin, having spent most of its development time in the "Green Hell" of the Nürburgring racetrack. Wider front and rear wings allow an increased track width for optimum grip and even higher cornering speeds. The new front fascia with active elements, the large rear aerofoil and the new rear fascia with double diffuser enhance aerodynamic efficiency and help ensure optimum grip. The lightweight forged wheels shod with cup tyres as standard are likewise designed for maximum driving dynamics. The same applies to other new features such as the active rear-wheel steering, the nine-way adjustable traction control system and the adjustable coil-over suspension with additional electronic control. What is more, the new AMG Panamericana grille emphasises the unique standing of the AMG GT R. Its characteristic form with vertical fins celebrated its world premiere on the Mercedes-AMG GT3 customer-sport racing car and now for the first time features on an AMG production vehicle.

Mercedes-AMG continues to grow and is expanding the top end of its product range with the introduction of the new AMG GT R. "Our sports-car and performance brand AMG has its roots in motorsport and, ever since its formation, has repeatedly faced up to the competition on the racetrack. These genes are particularly prevalent in the new AMG GT R. Boasting a wealth of technological innovations, the new top-of-the-range model is proof of the close collaboration between our constructors of racing cars and road-going vehicles," states Professor Thomas Weber, Member of the Board of Management of Daimler AG, responsible for Group Research and Mercedes-Benz Cars Development.

"With the new AMG GT R, we have reached the next level of driving performance. This road-going sports car with motor-racing genes and innovative technical solutions offers an ultimate driving experience that allows people to feel our motorsport origins in every fibre. It combines the driving dynamics of our AMG GT3 racing car with the everyday practicality of the AMG GT. Those with petrol in their veins will be thrilled by the radical longitudinal and lateral acceleration, the precise turn-in, and the sensational grip. We have modified all performance-relevant components and linked them together intelligently for maximum driving dynamics," says Tobias Moers, CEO of Mercedes-AMG GmbH.

The Market Data

The Mercedes-AMG GT R celebrates its world premiere on 24 June 2016 at the site of the Mercedes-Benz World located at one of England's most tradition-stepped racing circuits: Brooklands. The car will go on sale on 21 November 2016, and the market launch in Europe begins in March 2017.

Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio UK pricing and specification announced

UK PRICING for the all-new Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio has been announced at a press conference today, June 23, at the Goodwood Festival of Speed. Powered by a new 510hp, 600Nm Bi-Turbo V6 petrol engine, with an eight-speed paddle shift automatic transmission as standard, the Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio is capable of sprinting to 62mph in just 3.9* seconds and on to a top speed of more than 190mph while still being cable of up to 49mpg* on the official extra-urban fuel efficiency cycle, with low emissions of 189g/km*.

Built around Alfa Romeo's all-new rear-wheel drive architecture, the Giulia sports short overhangs, a long bonnet, muscular haunches and the longest wheelbase in its segment. Careful management of weights and materials has resulted in perfect 50/50 weight distribution across its axles, while the sophisticated four-arm Alfa™ Link rear suspension (with an Alfa Romeo-patented solution for toe adjustment) and new double-wishbone front set up have been specifically tuned to maximise its dynamic abilities and enhance driving comfort.

Also debuting on the Giulia is a new semi-virtual steering axis which optimises the filtering effect and guarantees rapid, accurate steering by keeping a constant caster trail in corners, while the advanced Alfa™ Torque Vectoring double-clutch rear differential system precisely controls the torque delivery to each rear wheel to improve traction in low grip conditions without having to run up against an invasive stability control system.

To obtain an excellent weight-to-power ratio and outstanding torsional rigidity, the new Giulia utilises an array of high-strength and ultra-lightweight materials including, for example, carbon fibre for the driveshaft, aluminium composite and plastic for the rear crossmember and aluminium for the doors, wings, engines (petrol and diesel), brakes and suspensions - including the front suspension domes and front and rear subframes.

The Giulia Quadrifoglio takes this attention to detail a stage further with its carbon fibre bonnet, roof, front splitter, rear spoiler and body inserts, as well as aluminium for the doors and wings. The braking system has been tweaked using aluminium elements, while carbon ceramic brake discs and front seats with a carbon fibre structural frame can also be specified as options.

Pricing for Alfa Romeo's advanced new super saloon will start at £59,000 OTR with an outstanding standard specification including 19-inch Quadrifoglio alloy wheels; sports front bumper with Alfa™ Active Aero; sports rear bumper with functional diffuser; sports exhaust with four outlets; Alfa™ Active Suspension and bi-xenon headlamps with LED DRL. Safety specification includes advanced Autonomous Emergency Braking (AEB), Lane Departure Warning (LDW), Blind Spot Monitoring (DSM), Alfa Romeo's new Integrated Braking System (IBS), Forward Collision Warning (FCW) and a rear-view camera with guide lines.

Interior highlights include special sports seats trimmed in leather and Alcantara with front seat heaters, steering-column mounted paddle shifters, a seven-inch TFT instrument cluster, Alfa Romeo's new Uconnect™ 3D Nav 8.8-inch infotainment system, DAB radio, dual-zone climate control, automatic lights and wipers and cruise control with speed limiter.

The Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio will be available to order shortly with details of the rest of the Alfa Romeo Giulia range to be announced closer to the vehicle's on sale date.

Volvo Car UK's latest twin engine model builds on electric hybrid sales success

VOLVO Car UK is increasing its popular Twin Engine range with the addition of a new V60 variant that will appeal to business drivers thanks to its highly competitive economic and environmental benefits.

The V60 D5 Twin Engine offers business owners and company car drivers a unique combination of luxury, economy and tax efficiency.

Introduced to the market in May 2016, Volvo's V60 D5 Twin Engine has CO2 emissions of just 48g/km and qualifies for a Government plug-in car grant of £2,500, as well as a 100% first year writing down allowance and an incredibly low Benefit-in-Kind (BIK) rate of just 7% this year.

The popularity of Volvo's plug-in electric hybrid vehicles is demonstrated by the XC90 T8 Twin Engine's sales figures, which have already exceeded year-to-date sales expectations for 2016 by nearly 10%. From the total of XC90 T8s sold in the UK so far, 57% of them have been fleet orders, split evenly across the Momentum, R-Design and Inscription trim levels.

Commercial print and packaging business, Elanders UK, recently placed an order for six V60 D5 Twin Engines, also taking an XC90 T8 onto their fleet. "The D5 Twin Engine version of Volvo's V60 made such a strong impression with myself and the team that it instantly became the front-runner in our choice of new vehicles," comments Chris Hewitt, managing director of Elanders UK.

"At Elanders, we strive to operate our business in the most ethical, safe and environmentally responsible way. Volvo's Twin Engine technology combines the benefits of a pure electric drive, high performance and great fuel economy, making the V60 D5 and XC90 T8 the perfect choices for our fleet cars," adds Hewitt.

The V60 has been an especially popular choice with fleet and company car drivers since the introduction of the D2 Business Edition and the D6 Twin Engine models to the V60 family. The V60 D5 Twin Engine sits comfortably in the C/D segment, offering unrivalled benefits to the driver when compared with its class rivals.

Ford expands sporty ST-Line range with new Mondeo ST Line unveiled at 2016 Goodwood Festival of Speed

FORD today revealed the sporty new Ford Mondeo ST-Line at the 2016 Goodwood Festival of Speed.

The Mondeo ST-Line is the newest addition to Ford's recently unveiled ST-Line model range that delivers bold styling inspired by Ford Performance models and features sport suspension and body styling; unique alloy wheel designs; and sport seats, perforated leather steering wheel and alloy pedals for the interior.

The new model joins the Fiesta ST-Line and Focus ST-Line on display at Goodwood, where Ford is showing a range of performance vehicles from the Ford GT Le Mans race car to the new Fiesta ST200 hot hatch.

Fiesta ST-Line and Focus ST-Line are both available to order since earlier this month and are designed for customers who aspire to the sporty image of the Ford Performance Fiesta ST and Focus ST hot-hatch models – but do not require the full performance delivered by optimised ST engines and chassis with sports technologies.

"The new Mondeo ST-Line is our sportiest Mondeo since we introduced the Mondeo ST220 model in 2002," said Roelant de Waard, vice president, Marketing, Sales and Service, Ford of Europe. "Mondeo ST-Line adds another dimension to the broad Mondeo line-up that offers options from the fuel-efficient Mondeo EConetic and Mondeo Hybrid models, to the exclusive and upscale Mondeo Vignale."

The new Mondeo ST-Line is available in five-door and estate bodystyles and delivers Ford Performance-inspired styling that includes:

A honeycomb design for the upper and lower front grilles in high-gloss black; LED daytime running lamps with light tube styling and new rectangular fog lamps

Front bumper lip spoiler and sculptured side-skirts in body colour; a sports rear bumper with high-gloss black diffuser-style insert; silver tailpipe surrounds*

A black beltline beneath the windows and ST-Line exterior badging on the front fenders

A choice of unique new 18-inch alloys wheels with bright machined surface or 19-inch alloy wheels in Rock Metallic Grey

Sport seats with unique red stitching; a perforated leather ST-style steering wheel; and black interior door appliques

Sports gear knob for manual transmissions and ST-Line scuff plates

Standard rear roof spoiler for the estate, and an optional rear roof spoiler for the five-door

As with all models in the new Ford ST-Line range, the Mondeo ST-Line is available only with high-power engine derivatives that complement the enhanced driving dynamics delivered by sport suspension – lowered by 10mm.

Diesel engine options include: 150PS 2.0-litre TDCi with six-speed manual or six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission offering from 112g/km CO2 and 65.7mpg

180PS and 180PS 2.0-litre TDCi with six-speed manual or six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission offering from 117g/km CO2 and 62.8mpg

The Mondeo ST-Line will feature steering wheel-mounted paddle shifters when Ford's six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission is specified, and also is offered with Ford Intelligent All Wheel Drive.

The technology delivers a seamless transition of torque between all four wheels to provide a more secure footing on the road especially in slippery conditions and can adjust torque delivery up to 50/50 between the front and rear wheels in under 20 milliseconds – twenty times quicker than it takes to blink.

"With our new ST-Line range even more customers can experience sporty style and driving dynamics inspired by our most exciting Ford Performance line-up ever, that includes models such as the Focus RS, new Fiesta ST200 and Ford GT supercar" de Waard said. "This year we expect to sell 40,000 performance cars in Europe, a 50 per cent increase compared with 2015, which in turn saw performance car sales rise by 61 per cent compared with 2014."

* Depending on selected powertrain
 The declared Fuel/Energy Consumptions, CO2 emissions and electric range are measured according to the technical requirements and specifications of the European Regulations (EC) 715/2007 and (EC) 692/2008 as last amended. Fuel consumption and CO2 emissions are specified for a vehicle variant and not for a single car. The applied standard test procedure enables comparison between different vehicle types and different manufacturers. In addition to the fuel efficiency of a car, driving behaviour as well as other non-technical factors play a role in determining a car's fuel/energy consumption, CO2 emissions and electric range. CO2 is the main greenhouse gas responsible for global warming.

MIDDLESEX 92 for 3 (9 overs) BEAT SOMERSET 88 for 6 (9 ov) BY FOUR RUNS SOMERSET began life after Chris Gayle with a narrow defeat in a rain affected game at Lords.

Batting first the hosts plundered what proved to be a match-winning 21 off Tim Groenewald's opening over of the match.

Dawid Malan then proceeded to celebrate his call up to the England one-day squad with a superb 53 off 42 balls in increasing sticky conditions.

He took 16 off Jamie Overton's final over of the nine including an audacious ramp shot.

Middlesex were eventually held to a challenging 92 for 3 from their adjusted allotment of nine overs.

Panthers leap to fourth

WITH three weeks to go until the end of the season there are just two teams who remain undefeated; Flamingos with five wins and Otters with four sit in first and second place respectively.

Otters were up against Hi Q and, with Vicki Carnall playing well, they were too strong and recorded a 23-15 victory with Bev Parris doing well for Hi Q.

The final game of the evening was another close match with Signs South West edging past Swagtermamas 22-20 with Jodie Rylance doing well whilst Jess Harford - Rees played well for the 'Mamas.

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

CLUB members, James Denne and Gemma Collier had a busy few days last week, with two races in four days.

On Wednesday the pair travelled to TINTINHULL to compete in a multi-terrain 10K.

James ran hard for the first 4K before establishing a big lead then eased back to save his legs for Sunday winning in a time of 36 min 14 secs, three and a half minutes ahead of the next athlete.

Gemma won the ladies race (11th overall) by two minutes in 44:37. There were 105 runners.

On Sunday, they raced at the PITCHCROFT 10K at Worcester Racecourse. The race consisted of a three-lap course with a strong head wind on the back straight.

James was second in 32:38. Gemma ran a massive personal best by 50 seconds to finish third in the ladies race in 40:01.

HRC members were involved with the Club's own Blackdown Beauty last Saturday.

Runners had the choice of running anything between 10 and 19 miles and the base was at Priors Park Farm, Culmhead. Thank you to the Parry family and the ladies of Smeatharpe WI.

All money raised went to Macmillan Cancer Support. Keep an eye on the website www.honitonrc.com for the winter version - The Blackdown Beast due to be held in January.

Honiton still unbeaten after whitewash

HONITON with John Pawley

THE Dartmoor League team continued their unbeaten run on Saturday with a fantastic 5-0 win against THURLESTONE.

Leading from the front was team Captain Rob Willey & Stewart Slater with a 5&3 win. The rest of the team all returned victorious and promotion is still the target.

Sunday saw all the big guns come out for the 36-hole CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP.

Mark Gillard was going for an unprecedented fifth win in a row, however it was not to be his year.

Leading after the first round was Junior Captain Ben Phillips with a gross 71 closely followed by Mark Tierney with 73 and Gillard on 74.

With Phillips and Tierney playing in the same group it was really match-play in the second round.

There all to play for on at the last hole and Phillips held on to win the overall competition by a single shot after shooting a gross 76 in the final round, with Tierney shooting 75.

Lowest round of the day however went to Peter Clarke who shot a fantastic gross 70 in the second round.

A special mention must also go to Jason Lovering who won the Nett prize thanks to a fantastic hole-in-one on the tricky 4th hole.

There was a mixed set of results in recent seniors friendly matches; a 4-2 loss at BUDLEIGH SALTERTON, a heavy 6-0 at DAINTON PARK but a 4-2 home win against TORQUAY.

The Ladies President's match against SAUNTON had already been postponed but the rain relented to allow the match to be played a little later than planned, and ended in glorious sunshine.

TORQUAY arrived with more men than needed so vice Captain Mike Sennitt accompanied the extra visitors on a round before the main competition.

On Tuesday afternoon over 30 players competed in the monthly Mixed Greensomes, with all the partners being drawn.

The clear winners with 39 points were Pam Knibb & Charlie Doherty. Jan Portlock & Brian Morrison were second on count-back on 36 points, with Hilda Hoepelman & Ken Wood third. In fourth place were Linda McLaughlin & Cyril Dann with 35 points.

A shot-gun start was the order of the day for the Ladies Wednesday's Stableford 3BBB competition, made up of three players in each team with one score to count.

The winners were Jenny Raison, Sally Chapman & Jackie Seager with 41 points, followed by Henrietta Bradshaw, Jan Portlock & Liz Wood with 40 with Tricia Swindell, Pat Hanes & Cherry Liell next on count-back.

The nine-hole competition, with the same format, was won by Sue Calver, Linda Northover & June Hodge with 16 points.

On Friday nearly 70 Seniors competed for the RON BLATCHFORD TROPHY.

Originally a competition of two rounds over two days this has been altered in recent years to be a one round Stableford contest.

Many found progress difficult in the damp conditions but not so newcomer David Woodruff. Winning Division Two, and the Trophy, with a splendid score of 39pts, he also achieved a handicap cut which will put him in Division One.

Second in Division Two was Phil Faulkner with 34 followed by Tom Chapman with 33 who got the nod on count-back from Tom Stanton with Ken Wood next with 32.

Division One was won by another newcomer David Morris with 37pts, followed by Max Pipe on 36 and Paul Ritchie with 35. Mike Stroud came next, then Alan Denny - all on 35.

Two's were achieved by five players; Dave Morgan, Ron Graham, Stan Squire, Ian Orford and Ron E Jones - all at the 2nd hole - they each won eight balls.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

HAVING been denied any golf on Monday due to the weather, the Seniors resumed their week on Wednesday with the SUPER SENIORS CUP.

This event is open to all members who have reached the age of 75 as a minimum requirement. In a field of 15, the competition was keenly contested with several players with similar scores at the half way mark.

However, Ted Bryden pulled away on the second half amassing 20 points. Result: Winner: Ted Bryden 34 points, runner up: Bryan Frost 32.

More poor weather on Friday failed to deter 46 members from competing in the JUNE QUALIFYING MEDAL.

The swirling rain made life difficult and in Division One only one golfer managed to break 80.

Life was a little easier for the high handicap players, but in that Division nobody did better than four over par.

Result: Division One - 1st Terry Rutherford 78, 2nd Phil Dewar 80, 3rd William Hughes 80.

Division Two - 1st Barry Singleton 74, 2nd Nobby Hodder 75, 3rd Clive Fisk 75.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Men's section early birds teed off at 5 am for their MIDSUMMER MADNESS competition which took the form of a Texas Scramble in teams of three, handicap being 20 percent of the combined total Medal format scores.

The mixed team winners were Simon Wellington, Jill Wellington & Mick Swann with a net 60.2.

Second place went to Simon Sweetland, Steve Anning & Margaret Kenchington with 61 and 3rd place went to Alan Kenworthy, Jim Whiting & Helen Kenworthy with 61.8.

The Men's team winners were Alan Vincent, Simon Vincent & Mike Chadwick with 62.6 and in 2nd place were Andy Gabb, Alex Gabb & Ron Bragg with 63.8.

The Men's GEES BOWL competition was a close run race with Mike Wickens taking the 1st place with a net 67, Jin Hong came in 2nd with 69 and Richard Gibbons was 3rd with 70.

Mike Wickens and Nigel Prichard both carded 25.

The Ladies section Ex-Captains competition was a close duel with Glenda Board taking 1st place with 35 points just edging out, Sandra Walker who was only beaten on a countback.

The Ladies stableford County competition was marred by heavy rain but for the second week running Pauline Willis came out on top with 37 points and received her 2nd handicap reduction in two weeks.

In 2nd place was Sandra Walker with 31 beating Glenda Board into 3rd place on countback.

The Ladies had a successful match against SIDMOUTH in the Sheelagh Creasy competition with a 4-3 win despite the thunder and lightning rumbling around.

The Ladies also won their Devon League match at WOODBURY.

There were two wins for Axe Cliff, two wins for Woodbury and two matches were drawn but due to all the Axe Cliff players having to give between 2 to 10 strokes, they scored nine points by away advantage against Woodbury's 6.

The Ladies qualifying match for the County Express & Echo Foursomes will have to be re-arranged due to a sea mist causing calling all the players off the course before they had completed the first eight holes.

The Seniors Section home match against EXMINSTER resulted in a 5-0 win but unfortunately Exminster were two players short and had to concede the 6th match.

A notable 7 up with 5 to play win was achieved by the Dave Brice & Geoff Hughes, both playing off 19 handicaps.

Other team members were: Bill Polley & Neil Moorcraft, Edward Backhouse & Bob Cook, Rob Heard & Pete Motson, Mike Tomes & Mick Swann, Dave Sammons & John Ashbolt.
